DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 18-29 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on September 06, 2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-10, 12-15, 30-35, and 37-47 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's Admitted Prior Art (AAPA) in view of USPN 4,381,148 to Ulrich et al and in view of USPN 6,888,853 to Jurgensen and USPN

Art Unit: 1725

4,817,413 to Asano et al. AAPA describes (Specification, Background) well known laser processing including a CO<sub>2</sub> laser and including control and including cutting of steel sheets. Ulrich et al describe (Abstract) use of a power meter cell disposed in the flow path of a gas species whose absorption coefficient is small enough not to disturb the beam. The use of the particular measuring cell would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art because radiation absorption is small enough to allow the beam to pass through the meter unaltered. Jurgensen describes (column 20, lines 60-65) the well known beam splitter and measuring cell and describes (column 34, lines 19-22) the use of splitter mirrors. Ulrich et al describe (column 2, lines 44, 45) a microphone and the use of this sound monitor for monitoring the laser would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art because it provides continuous monitoring capability for good apparatus control. The use of different species of splitting means and different pulse generating means would have been obvious as being a substitution of available known components. The instant claimed intended use of a control unit would have been obvious because the control units of the AAPA, Ulrich et al, and Jurgensen can be configured for a wide variety of control. Asano et al describe (column 3, lines 7-24) the use of a filter with the measuring cell.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Art Unit: 1725

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
